

Emergence

Will it be said, in the end
That I emerged from the earth
And stumbled and yawned
Bowed before the Treasure Tower
And slept?

Or will I make it known
That I roared the Law
And fought though hell and heaven
To open with the sun
Both blossom and mud...

— JASON HENNINGER, Tacoma, Wash.

Title: Emergence
Subject: World Tribune 03/14/97 n.3130 p.7 WT970314p07 Tacoma, Washington
Author: Jason Henninger
Keywords: Emergence Expressions Poetry Speech Tacoma Washington