

I AM...
BY YUMI LOOK, ALBANY, CALIF.

I am a curious little girl,
I wonder about the future,
I hear those who cry for love,
I see the moon and stars,
I want to heal those thousands of wounds,
I am a curious little girl.

I pretend I have special powers,
I feel all the pressure in the world around me,
I touch my Hope Tree,
I worry about my family and others,
I cry when others hurt me,
I am a curious little girl.

I understand that everyone is different,
I say I can do anything I want to do,
I dream that I can change the world,
I try everything new,
I hope to be a pediatrician,
I am a curious little girl.
